

REPRESENTATIVE DRIEHAUS ANNOUNCES 2010 UNITED STATES SERVICE ACADEMY DAY

CINCINNATI, OH—Representative Steve Driehaus today announced that the First Congressional District's 2010 United States Service Academy Day will be held on Saturday, September 11 from 1:00-3:00pm at Wyoming High School, 106 Pendery Avenue Cincinnati, OH 45215.

Representatives from the following academies will make brief presentations and will be available to answer questions.

- United States Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, CO • United States Military Academy at West Point, West Point, NY • United States Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, NY

- United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD

“The U.S. Service Academies are some of the finest academic institutions in the country for those seeking to enter lives of service and leadership. I encourage all high school students and their families to join me at the 2010 Academy Day to learn more about what these academies have to offer,” said Rep. Driehaus.

The event is open to all high school students in Ohio's First Congressional District, as well as their families. For more information regarding the 2010 U.S. Service Academy Day please contact Jay Stolkin in Rep. Driehaus's District Office at (513) 684-2723.

###